

Helping put you on the road to recovery

If you have a serious and persistent complex mental health issue, Partners in Recovery can help.

What we do

Help your recovery

We will meet with you to assess your needs and understand your hopes and life goals. We then link you into a range of services and supports to help you meet those goals.

Connect you with the support you need

You will be assisted by a dedicated Support Facilitator to identify any gaps in your care and work with you to develop your personalised recovery plan. Your Support Facilitator will also assist you to apply for NDIS and help you through the process.

How we do it

Single point accountability

Your Support Facilitator will coordinate and link you with services and supports to meet your needs.

Person-centred approach

We will be responsive and adaptable to your unique needs and work with you towards achieving your own life goals.

Working in partnership

You will be involved as much as possible in all decisions about your care, treatment and services. We will work collaboratively with other organisations to achieve the best possible recovery outcomes for individuals, family members and carers.

Developing holistic plans

We will tailor an individual recovery plan that is meaningful for you.
